SYNOPSIS AND AGRICULTURAL SUMMARY

A mass of cool air moving slowly southward near the coast and a deep low pressure area at upper levels was centered over the Oregon coast this morning. This is relatively dry air, but is becoming cooler as the cool air mass near the coast edges southward.

Cooler daytime temperatures are forecast for central parts of this district today and for all sections on Friday. Skies will continue mostly sunny with some high cloudiness and no showers expected.

A little more wind is likely than during the past two days, probably 10 to 20 miles per hour at times from midday to near sunset on Friday.

The outlook for Saturday is for partly cloudy and rather cool. However, this outlook involves a little more uncertainty than usual, depending as it does on the future path of the cold low now off the coast.

Water requirement for crops continue rather high, as reflected by water losses from evaporation pans. These amounts for the 24-hour period ending at 8 a.m. included Kimberly, 40. These rates should not change much today and Friday.

Dry sunny weather will continue favorable for curing hay and for farm work in general. Light winds during morning and evening hours will be suitable for spraying and dusting.

Wendell Boy, 13, Burned in Garage Blaze

WENDELL — A 13-year-old Wendell boy was burned during a garage fire Wednesday morning.

According to Wendell Fire Department officials, the boy, Tom Bartee, was attempting to remove the cap from a gas can in the garage on the Ernest Bartee ranch three miles east of here, when it exploded.

The pressure and fumes that had been built up in the gas can had exploded when the cap was removed, fire officials said. The garage was destroyed. All contents in the garage, which included saddles and other horse equipment, were destroyed.

The Bartee boy was burned slightly on the face. He was treated at the Wendell Hospital.

An estimated $2,000 damage resulted from the blaze, which destroyed an air compressor, drill press, saddles, bridles and other working equipment. The building was insured, while the tools and other equipment were not.

Laos

The Communists have been holding a 14-day neutrality conference in Laos, following the 1954 Geneva Conference neutralizing Laos, a 14-day meeting again was called in 1961.

A year later the nations—including the Soviet Union, Red China and the United States—agreed to set up a coalition government in Laos. They also signed a treaty making Laos the non-Communist and non-Communist nations in Southeast Asia.

But Premier Souvanna Phouma and his half-brother, Prime Minister Souvannavong, defected to the royal government, leaving the royalist prime minister heads the Pathet Lao, long been completely at odds.

The premier considers his half-brother a prisoner of the North Vietnamese while Souvannavong calls Souvanna Phouma an American valet.

The king of Laos, Savang Vatthana, avoids the political controversy.

The North Vietnamese have supported the Pathet Lao under objectives fixed 10 years ago by President Ho Chi Minh who wanted to gain control over all of Vietnam.

But this objective is still far from being achieved in Laos and the tide is beginning to ebb for Ho's men, according to sources here.

As for Communist China, diplomatic reports reaching here say the Red Chinese did not really sweep outside of its borders into northern Laos despite some reports to the contrary.

Rather, it is believed that the Chinese Communist forces learned a bloody lesson in the Korean War when they suffered the loss of 300,000 Chinese killed in action.

Omaha Mayor Hopes Rain Cooled Trouble

OMAHA, Neb. (AP) — At the city hall, the weary mayor watched the pelting rain and muttered: "Maybe this will cool things off."

And it may have. Two miles from city hall on the near-North Side, a tentative peace followed the rain.

The drenching cooled the black, steamy pavement of North 24th Street, greened up lawns in front of closely spaced houses and refreshed flowers that bloomed along shabby backstreets.

Only the workaday traffic moved in and out of a huge parking lot where bottles and stones flew during three nights of the Fourth of July weekend disorders.

Along North 24th Street, which for some 36 blocks is the north-south axis of the near-North Side, glass from shattered display windows had been swept away. Here and there were store fronts patched with sheets of plywood.

But how much heat of resentment and frustration lingered behind drab facades remained to be seen.

"A lot," said a young Air Force veteran. "These kids just doing what their elders wish they had the guts to do."

Not all the elders agreed. What "those kids" had done had become the focal point of the civil rights movement in Omaha. It had dramatized demands and shocked this city and its suburbs which together constitute a metropolitan area of about a half-million people.

The city's Negro population is estimated at 30,000, according to Steven E. Executive director of the Urban League, quotes the higher figures and says 80 per cent of the Negroes live on the near North Side.

The hub of Negro activity traditionally has been the intersection of 24th and Lake Streets. Gov. Frank Morrison flew from the governors' conference in California to join Mayor A.V. Sorenson in seeking an end to the violence.

"Yes, those who met with the governor, but Jim Livingston, who was on the 24th Street, spoke for the rioters."

The young men said they wanted jobs, training for better jobs and better recreation facilities. They complained of police brutality.

"We don't know how to talk to them and they don't know how to talk to us," said one youth describing relations with police search of five young men to fill $2.72-an-hour jobs. He could only find three takers despite an announcement he made in the church, said Hodges.

Omaha Urban League officials have lamented the city's 15 per cent, although Omaha University economist Larry Danton has said "There is no reason to believe the Negro unemployment rate is any different in Omaha than it is national."

The North Side ghetto was expanded, and on its outer limits to the west and north are newer homes with bigger yards. There are several public housing projects including a 12-story residence for the elderly.

But in older areas there are shabby, rundown houses.

Thursday, July 7, 1966

Stewart, of the Urban League, says Omaha has done a good job in the fields of jobs and education, but in housing "it hasn't done a thing."

Real Courage

Larry Thomas, Philadelphia member of the Teamsters Union and a delegate to the union's meeting in Miami Beach, showed some real courage. He voted against authorizing union funds to pay legal fees and expenses incurred by the twice-convicted president, James R. Hoffa. King Jimmy's rubber stamp convention pushed through the resolution to put the funds at his disposal. The standing vote turned into a two-minute demonstration of shouting and bollering as the resolution was approved. And after all that, Mr. Thomas still had the courage to stand — all by himself — when King Jimmy called for any dissenting votes.

It's one thing to voice criticism of King Jimmy with the protection of time and distance; it's quite another to express contempt for the king in his own court. This sort of bravery is akin to a lone soldier charging straight at an enemy machinegun. Unfortunately, there's no medal for men like Mr. Thomas, but he might find some comfort in knowing that thousands will admire his demonstration of real courage.

However, Mr. Harris might have the last laugh. King Jimmy faces prison sentences of 13 years on convictions of jury tampering and mail fraud. True, he's not behind bars yet and may never be, but he's been making arrangements for a substitute-to-sort-of-run things while he's out of circulation — if he ever is. Loyal delegates to the union's meeting approve of that sort of thing, but it remains to be seen what would happen in actual practice.

The presidency of the Teamsters' Union is a heady position. The pay is excellent, the hours aren't so bad and there's much to be said for the presidency of a union that would vote to turn its treasury over to the president in time of need. Greater men have been blinded by prospects that were far less bright.

It wouldn't be surprising to see a "stand-in" president turn out to be the real thing once King Jimmy landed safely behind bars. But that sort of development wouldn't assure the large Teamsters Union of the sort of leadership it deserves and seldom, if ever, has known.

Perhaps the Teamsters may never have the sort of leadership they need until many more members start displaying the brand of courage illustrated by Mr. Thomas. If and when individual members found a reservoir of that sort of courage, they would be able to have a union of the members, by the members and for the members.

LOUD AND CLEAR

The future of Columbia Basin water was spelled out loud and clear at the governors' session in Los Angeles. Arizona's governor, Samuel P. Goddard, urged construction of two giant dams on the Colorado River to help pay ultimately for the cost of importing water. He was speaking on behalf of all seven governors of the Colorado River Basin states and he was talking about Columbia Basin water. Not all of it, naturally. "We are only thinking about the importation of five or six million acre feet," he explained. And could have added "initially."

Then Gov. Goddard had to put the sugar coating on the pill. "Arizona doesn't covet any state's water," he declared. "We only want an exchange of surplus waters in the West." Perhaps he means that Arizona would be quite happy to exchange its surplus water (there isn't any such critter, of course) for Idaho's surplus water. And when those residents of the arid Southwest start talking "surplus" water, they convey the impression they believe that's the only kind in Idaho.

It does no good to point out to these people in the Southwest that every last drop of the Snake River upstream from Twin Falls is being used now in years of drought. By the same token, no one should lose sight of the fact that Southwest residents are moving merrily in the direction of diverting water from the Columbia Basin to the Colorado Basin. It isn't just so much talk on their part. There's an urgent necessity to use every drop of water for which there is a use. It should be the immediate goal of the new Water Resources Board to concentrate its efforts in South Idaho. It's just one of the reasons why it would make good sense for the Water Board to take a close look at plans to put Snake River water on the Salmon Tract.

Besides, Gov. Goddard makes it quite plain that the much more populous states of the Southwest will drag their feet on any more federal plans in Congress to use Northwest water in the Northwest. If more Snake River water is to be put to work, it will have to be done on the state itself. — The Boston Globe

HOPKINS'S HOUSE

President Johnson and Vice President Humphrey agree that this is hardly the time to start a $750,000 house for the vice president. Mr. Johnson signed the bill authorizing that amount, but he was wise in ordering a halt on the project.

Both parties, in Congress and outside, agreed that a suitably large and stately mansion would be in keeping with the duties and prequisites of the nation's No. 2 public figure. But the threat of inflation made it clear that there were costs against spending so much money.

For the time being then, Vice President Mrs. Humphrey will have to make do with their modest eight-room house in Chevy Chase, Md. As long as the White House admires the nation's industrialists to hold back new capital outlays, could it, with grace do otherwise? — Itself. — The Boston Globe

350 Evacuate
Town Due to Poison Spray

ARGYLE, Minn. (AP) — Between 300 to 350 persons, mostly young people, were evacuated from this northwestern Minnesota community late Wednesday night after it was discovered the town was accidentally sprayed with a poison chemical authorities said.

Chief of Police Dennis Rousseau said the community of 800 was being sprayed from a light plane to combat mosquitoes when it was discovered that the town had been sprayed.

He said the plane made three passes over the town before the mixup in chemicals was discovered.

Dr. E. E. Pumala of Warren, acting Marshall County medical officer, said the chemical mistakenly used was paraquat, which he described as "quite a lethal poison."

Paraquat is used as an insecticide in farming areas.

The spraying immediately affects from the poisonous chemical, he said, but an emergency supply of atropine, an antidote, was being flown from Minneapolis as a precaution.

Rousseau said paraquat is considered dangerous at temperatures above 60 degrees. He said the effects of the spraying would not be definitely known until later today when the temperature rises.

GRAND JUNCTION, Colo. (AP) — Two men were killed when a light plane crashed and burned 60 miles west of here inside the Utah border Wednesday.

Sheriff John Stokes of Grand County, Utah, said today the victims were believed to be Al Ringler, 35, a Modesto, Calif., businessman, and the pilot, Tom Wilson, 34, also of Modesto.

The wreckage and one body were found Wednesday, but the second body was not discovered until today.

Wilson and Ringler left Grand Junction Wednesday morning for Modesto in a plane Ringler had purchased in Wichita, Kan., and had flown to Grand Junction on Tuesday. Wilson is reported to be a pilot, burning for a plane firm in Modesto.

The plane slammed into the ground and skidded to a stop about a half-mile from the end of the runway, without exploding, the burning air base officials said.

The pilot, Maj. Douglas Thompson, and pilot-systems operator, 1st Lt. James Motsas, scrambled from the craft. Officials said they received minor injuries and were hospitalized for observation.

LICENSE RETURNED
BOISE (AP) — The driver's license of railroad attorney William Padgett, an order was returned Wednesday. The grounds he was not given a hearing within 20 days after the license was suspended.

Third District Judge Merlin Young ordered E. R. Hopper, commissioner of law enforcement, to return the license. Hopper had argued the 20-day hearing requirement was repeated by language in the state's new administrative procedure act.

Hopper suspended Padgett's license when he refused to take a chemical breath test April 18. He was charged with driving under the influence of alcohol under innocent and faces trial Aug. 5.

The plan has resulted from intensive field survey and field study over several years by Sawtooth National Forest and Intermountain Region personnel.

The Timber Management Plan will enable the timber industry to schedule and plan better their operations than the export timber from the Sawtooth National Forest. The budgeted annual allowable cut for the Sawtooth working circle will be nearly 18 million board feet of all species, with this volume supplying most of the local sawmills and other users.

This new plan provides a procedure for the scientific management of the timber resources of the Sawtooth National Forest.

It also provides an annual allowable cut which provides a balance between the amount to be harvested with the amount of growth.

The plan also provides for coordination and requirements for multiple use management of the National Forest, Rees said.

The plan particularly recognizes the need to maintain good water quality and to provide for recreation, grazing, wildlife and the many other resources and uses of the Sawtooth National Forest.

WENDELL The Wendell graduating class of 1931 will observe its 35th anniversary observance Saturday, July 10, 1966.

The annual reunion, planned at 7:30 p.m. Saturday at the Hagerman Hotel for classmates and guests, An informal potluck picnic will begin at 1 p.m. Sunday at the Wendell city park for classmates and their families and all friends who wish to attend.

"There were 22 members in the graduating class. All members have been invited with the exception of one," captioned.

U.S. Is Surely Succeeding Militarily in Viet Nam War

By TOM TIEDE
NEW YORK (NEA)—It has become the vogue in the United States of late to write off our military effort in Viet Nam as failing.

The view is unfortunate—and wrong.

Fighting: On the contrary, Military Assistance is succeeding.

This isn't to say the enemy is being routed. He isn't. And it also isn't to say that one day the enemy will finally wave a white flag, admit his errors and surrender. He won't.

Nonetheless his side is slowly losing the war. And our side is slowly winning it.

Forget the politics for the moment and never mind the social confusion in that land. We're talking about combat; the blood and mud of it, where success is measured by counting the survivors at the end of every day.

And, though they don't hurt us so terribly physically (casualties are the lowest in battle since the Spanish-American war), they do financially: Using battle costs vs. enemy dead, it costs the United States over $250,000 knowingly kill a VC guerrilla.

But, regardless of the expense, the question is: Can they continue?

Will they? Nobody knows. Nobody likes to guess. History has proven it is a mistake to underestimate either their capabilities or their determination.

Truth is, victory as we know it is improbable in Viet Nam.

But so, at least, barring U.S. withdrawal, is defeat.

View Ward Holds Annual Celebration

Defense Department analysts believe the enemy has markedly increased their influence over the population in the past year. U.S. influence has grown by 8 per cent.

Clearly it's the enemy who is catching hell.

And that is not surprising. In a year of escalation, friendly forces have grown by over 250,000. They have more than tripled; air bombing has reached nearly three times what it was in Korea; and the chances of a Communist soldier being killed in the action has more than doubled.

Moreover, the enemy in Viet Nam is now easily confronting the most modernly armed fighter force ever assembled for warfare:

B-52 bombers, for example, which carry four dozen 750-pound bombs apiece; 20mm jet plane shells, each of which strike with the force of a car hitting a cement wall at 450 m.p.h.; and individual rifles that can fire 12 rounds a second.

Eight hundred helicopters and more than 700 attack planes also hunt the enemy.

And so, of course, do 260,000 American GIs who, it is estimated, will fire off one billion

Tito Emerges Strong After Party Purge

BELGRADE (AP) — Pres. Ivo Stefanovic, boss of the secret police of the breakaway Yugoslav state, emerged stronger than ever. The purge, expected to be publicly disclosed, was restored to power by members of the Communist party who had strong support throughout the country. The extensive state security apparatus, committed suicide in jail.

The third purge, which began in 1948, was the most painful of all for removed Milovan Djilas from the scene for advocating abolition of both political monopoly and personal control of the economy.

He headed the secret police in Twin Falls Times-News 11 years after the 1948 break with Stalin, preventing Stalinist followers from organizing opposition to Tito's independent line.

Tito and liberal elements in the party put their weight behind economic reform and were struggling with dogmatists who wanted to prevent centralized control of the economy.

IT WAS A GAG, but could have caused a tragedy. Larry Plot, Idaho State Patrolman, didn't find identification of anyone on the "corps" lying in the middle of U.S. Highway 93 Tuesday morning, about five miles north of Hailey. Someone had stuffed the legs of an old pair of jeans and the arms of a shirt with weeds and placed a volley-ball on the dummy for a head. Plot said a car swerving to miss what looked like a head could easily have caused an accident. (Times-News photo)

Pack Horse Injures Girl At Shoshone

SHOSHONE — Mildred Robinson, 10, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Robinson, Shoshone, was injured when a family pack horse trampled her as she helped her father in a corral.

She was taken to Gooding Memorial hospital for treatment, and was released after a day.

Most serious of her injuries was a muscle tear from the bone along her left leg, which required surgery at 4:30 p.m. She also received bruises on her left shoulder, a knot on her forehead and a black eye.

The girl was unconscious for 15 or 20 minutes after the accident.

3 Injured in 2-Car Crash

Three Maple Valley residents were slightly injured in a two-car collision at 10:40 p.m. Wednesday at Avenue Avenir East and Faure Street.

Grover Hartley, 26, 651 Locust St., was driving a 1952 Ford west on Addison Avenue East and attempted to turn left on Locust Street. He drove into the path of a 1959 Mercury driven by Tomal Carrison, 17, Twin Falls. Carrison was unable to stop and the two vehicles collided.

Taken to Maple Valley Medical Hospital for examination were Grover, Lydia Grigsby, 71, Twin Falls, a passenger in Hartley's vehicle; Carol Gundolting, 18, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Gundolting, Hazelton, and Gyla Grigsby, 20, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Grigsby, Twin Falls, passengers in the Carrison vehicle. All were discharged without serious injury. Alan Abel, 18, Twin Falls, was not injured.

A citation was issued to Hartley for failure to yield the right of way.

Reaches Court

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — The topless bathing suit reached the State Supreme Court Wednesday.

The city of Hawthorne, Calif., asked the court to do something about it in the case of Jean Davis who made the outfit in her husband's bar.

Jean and husband, Harlan C. Davis, were convicted of outraging public decency. But the State District Court of Appeal reversed the conviction. It said the state law was unconstitutional because survivors include one son, Isadore J. Greenwood Jr., Fort Collins, Colo.; two daughters, Mrs. Thomas (Elizabeth) West, Venise, Calif.; Mrs. Joseph (Rosella) Bedore, Stockton, Calif., and Mrs. Ludwig (Virginia) Bauder, Gooding, and four grandchildren.

Mourners services will be conducted by Rev. Jim Davis, Assembly of God Church, at 2:30 p.m. Saturday in Thompson Chapel. Last rites will be at Elmwood Cemetery. Friends may call Friday afternoon and until time of services Saturday at Thompson Chapel.

The group assembled in a pre-incorporation meeting to formulate ideas for a program where people, both laymen and professional persons, can gather to promote humanitarian sciences through seminars and other educational means.

The sessions to be developed will expand the thinking and interest of both children and adults and the program will be family oriented.

Mrs. Virginia Sutliff, secretary of the Estenian Institute, Big Sur, Calif., acted as chairman and coordinator of the meeting. Mrs. Sutliff, an internationally known coordinator of mental health and family seminars, has recently returned to coordinate a series of free clinics in the Big Sur program which has successfully operated a program similar to the locally proposed plan over the past several years.

The site of the corporation will be the Starweather Ranch, formerly the Mizer-Price Ranch. Mrs. Josephine Price, owner of the ranch, will lead and coordinate the program in this area.

Interested persons from Bolsover, Kimberley, Weiser, Ketchum, Hailey, Twin Falls, Salt Lake City, Palo Alto, Calif., and Mt. Pleasant, Iowa, attended the planning meeting.

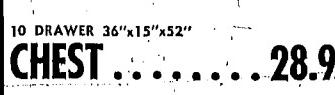

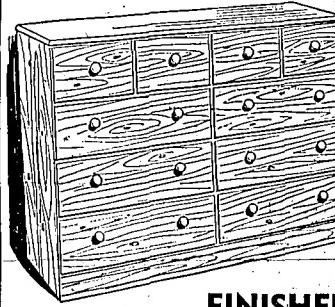

From the group, Mrs. Jean Terra, Ketchum, was elected treasurer, and Mrs. Shirley Kimberly, was asked to head the business committee. Jean Mizer, Hailey, will chair the non-business activities committee.

A subsequent meeting which will include a weekend seminar, will be held over Labor Day. The meeting will be open to all interested persons. Inquiries should be directed to Mrs. Mizer, Hailey.

Falls Asleep

PADUCAH, Ky. (AP) — Jim Davis, apparently fell asleep at the reins and was fined $15 and costs for recklessly driving — of a horse-drawn vehicle.

Mr. Alfred Swindell testified that Davis' wagon struck a car parked outside his home. She said Davis appeared to be asleep when the accident occurred.

Nuptial Vows

HAILEY — Norma Elizabeth Broyles, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Broyles, Hailey, and James William Fica, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Fica, Kelchum, exchanged wedding vows in double ring ceremony held May 28 at the Emmanuel Episcopal Church, Hailey.

Rev. W. Douglas Ellway officiated at the rites before an altar adorned with cathedral baskets of white chrysanthemums enhanced with lavender satin bows.

Mrs. Chester Arndt played a prelude of selected favorites, and accompanied Sylvia Blades, Ketchum, soloist.

The bride, given-in marriage by her father, wore a floor-length gown of white organza and Venise lace. The gown featured a fitted bodice, modified sweetheart neckline and lily point sleeves. A panel of lace outlined the crescent waistline and accented the cathedral train.

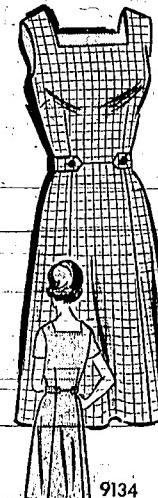

Her fingertip-length veil of double silk illusion was held by a full crown of pearls and crystal.

The bride carried a shower bouquet of sterling silver roses and stephanotis accented with cascading streamers ending in rose petals.

Mrs. Francis Bergin, Shoshone, was matron of honor for her niece.

Stocks

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market kept a patchwork of strength at the close today. Trading was moderately active.

Most of the session stocks continued their rally of Wednesday, though on a more limited scale.

Prices were unsettled in the afternoon by a Russian radio report to the effect that the Warsaw Pact conference had agreed to send volunteers to Viet Nam if Ho Chi Minh's government asked for them.

Stocks were popularized for a while but came back almost to their best a half hour before the close. In the final minutes of trading, however, there was some further softness.

Du Pont's ability to hold a gain of between 3 and 4 points was stiffening in the averages. United Aircraft, Douglas Aircraft and Eastern Kodak were weak.

Volume for the day was estimated at 7.5 million shares compared with 6.87 million Wednesday.

Here was the picture near the close:

The market was continuing Wednesday's rally on a limited basis when the Russian radio reported that the Warsaw Pact conference had agreed to send volunteers to Viet Nam if Ho Chi Minh's government asks for them.

This report brought in some selling and pared prices, but as trading continued in the afternoon the averages were still ahead.

Fairchild Camera was up about 4; Du Pont, Newmont Mining and Motorola about 3; IBM, Gulf & Western, Foster Wheeler, American Research, Howard Johnson, T. Ray McDermott and May Department Stores about 2 each.

The leading auto stocks clung to fractional gains but steel headed irregularly lower. Oils were mostly down by fractions.

Ampex, off a fraction, looked like the most active stock.

NICKLAUS, HITCHCOCK PACE BRITISH OPEN

Top Golf Names Jammed 2 Shots Behind Leaders

MUIRFIELD, Scotland (AP) — Jack Nicklaus, the blind bear from Columbus, Ohio, and England's Jimmy Hitchcock took joint hold of the first round lead in the British Open Golf Championship Wednesday with one-under-par 70s that demonstrated how tough Muirfield can be. The 6,887 yard links on the shore of the Firth of Forth bared the teeth of knee high rough, cross-winds and delicate greens which conquered most of the field of 130 top professionals and amateurs.

DETROIT (AP) — Bob Rodgers singled home a run in the 10th inning and Jack Sanford put down a Detroit rally in the bottom of the frame as the California Angels nipped the Tigers 1-0 Wednesday night.

Tom Satriano opened the 10th with a single off Larry Sherry, who took over after starting. Eric Wilson left for a pinch-hitter in the ninth. Pinch-runner Jack Hernandez then moved to second on a sacrifice and came home on Rodgers' single.

In the Tigers' half of the 10th, Don Wert walked and, with one out, Norm Cash singled for the third hit off George Brunet, now 8-3. This brought on Sanford, who retired Tom Tingley and Willie Horton on fly balls.

Solons Claim Double Win Over Chicago

WASHINGTON (AP) — A wild throw by reliever Bob Locker opened the door for two runs in the eighth inning, giving the Washington Senators a 3-2 victory over the Chicago White Sox and a sweep of their night doubleheader Wednesday.

The Senators won the opener 4-3 behind Don Lock, who hit a two-run homer in the first inning and scored the winning run in the fourth.

The White Sox led the night cap 2-1 and starter Joe Horner was working on a five-hitter when Lock got the Senators going by drawing a walk.

Horner was replaced by Locker, who picked up Ken Matzel's error and sent it into right field for a three-base error that let Lock score with the tying run.

Paul Casanova then doubled McMillen home with the tie-breaker.

Lock hammered his homer in the first inning of the opener as the Senators struck for three runs, Chicago tied the score in the ninth and Flynn Robinson hit a two-run homer.

Then he opened the fourth inning with a single, moved up on McMillen's sacrifice, and drove home on Ed Brinkman's two-out double.

Mays' Homer Lifts Giants Past Cards

SAN—FRANCISCO (AP)

Willie Mays' 524th career homer lifted the San Francisco Giants to a 3-2 victory over the St. Louis Cardinals Wednesday.

Mays' threerun shot erased a 2-1 Cardinal lead in the eighth inning.

It was the 18th home run of the season for Mays and left him 10 short of Jimmie Foxx's, his next target in the all-time home run list.

Cardinal starter Tracy Stallard was working on a four-inning shutout when he gave up the eighth-pitch home run to Lee May.

Giants' pinch-hitter Eddie满员 had a single, knocking off Stallard.

Joe Hoerner came on to get pinch hitter Dick Dietz for the second out, but then Mays connected against the third Cardinal pitcher of the inning, Don Dennis.

NIAGARA HATCHERY RECEIVES FIRST STEELHEAD YOUNG

HATCHING TRAYS for about 3,000,000 eyed Steelhead eggs are inspected by C. R. (Bob) Quidor, superintendent of the new Niagara Springs Steelhead rearing facility. The eyed eggs will come from another hatchery in Hells Canyon, will be hatched here and the young fish grown to six inches in length. They will then be released into the Palouse River and Salmon River drainage to perpetuate the Middle Snake River run, doomed by a hydroelectric dam complex. (Times-News photo)

Clemente Bats Pirates Past Chicago 10-5

CHICAGO (AP) — Roberto Clemente drove in five runs with a double, and home Wednesday, pausing the Pittsburgh Pirates to their 10th victory in the 10th game in a 10-game stretch of the Calexico Colos.

Clemente doubled home two runs in the Pirates' three-run seventh and then lashed his 13th homer of the season with two runs aboard in the ninth. The five RBI gave Clemente 53 and tied him with Willie Stargell for the most in the National League.

Duffy Dandeneau put the Pirates ahead to stay at 3-1 in the sixth with a two-run homer. It was his 13th and fourth in the last four games.

Plant to Have Three Million Within Week

A half million visitors moved in for a year's stay at the new Idaho Power-Idaho Fish and Game Department steelhead rearing facility at Niagara Springs Wednesday and they will be joined by another two and one-half million in the next few days.

The world's largest steelhead rearing facility, with work still progressing, thus got into operation Wednesday. C. R. (Bob) Quidor, new superintendent, formerly superintendent for the Fish and Game Department, and personnel from the U. S. Wildlife Service hatchery at Hagerman brought the one-half million steelhead by tank truck Wednesday afternoon. The remaining two and one-half million will come from state and federal hatcheries in this area plus hatcheries at Eagle and Enterprise, Ore.

The Niagara raceways represent the costliest and longest step of efforts to transplant the Middle Snake River Steelhead run to the Salmon River drainage.

Idaho Power's three-dam complex in Hells Canyon presented unique and enormous problems. The power company, after spending $12 million trying to solve the matter of passage entered into this unique transplants project with the Idaho Fish and Game Department. The power company will underwrite the entire cost of the project, which will last eight years or through two complete Steelhead spawning cycles.

The sprawling Steelhead are created at the lower Idaho Power dam and stripped of eggs and sperm. The eggs are eyed at a facility there and then will be transported by truck to the Niagara plant, where they will be kept at a temperature of about one year until they attain smolt (migrant) size. They will again be loaded into trucks and taken to large ponds on the Palouse River. The smolts will go into the river, down the Salmon and Columbia rivers and into the ocean to hopefully return to the smolter to spawn in six years.

Quidor said although the Niagara Hatchery will get some three to three and one-half million-eyed eggs per year, the project calls for only about 200,000 pounds (the smolts running about six to a pound) to be planted.

"We will cull out the shrimps every time we grade the fish," Quidor said. "It's our aim to keep only the leaders, the best of each year's crop." Even at that the project will add about 1,200,000 migrants to the Salmon River escapement per spring.

Quidor, who's had two years' experience with steelhead raising at the Rapid River hatchery near Riggs, said the fish will be reared on a state formula of dry pellets.

He called the new hatchery the most modern in the world ("there might be some that equal it, but there are none better.") It will include a fish cooler, designed to help transport more fish in less water, and hatching trays for the three-million-eyed eggs.

Boston Takes Twin Bill From Yanks

NEW YORK (AP) — Carl Yastrzemski drove in three runs with a single, and a homer as the Boston Red Sox completed a doubleheader sweep, beating the New York Yankees 5-4 in the second game Wednesday.

Damon Jones' two-run pinch homer in the ninth inning gave the Red Sox a 5-3 decision in the opening game.

Yastrzemski singled, Jose Tarrabull home with the run that broke a 3-3 tie in the seventh inning of the nightcap. Tarrabull had singled and stole second before Yastrzemski delivered.

The same combination had given the Red Sox an early 2-0 lead. Tarrabull had a single in the third inning when Yastrzemski joined one into the left center field alley and raced around the bases for an inside-the-park home run.

YOUR BIRTHDAY and HOROSCOPE

Need MORE Cash? Get It TODAY... The Want Ad Way!

THURSDAY, July 7. — Born today... you are, by nature, an shrewd and independent person, somewhat inclined to taking small matters too seriously. Learn to gear your emotional response to the importance of the problem at hand, and you should find that you have far more energy to spare than you do now. For anyone who is completely to a mind one is bound to fire himself too soon.

You have a number of talents but would promote do best if you narrowed your interests down to one or two main concerns. You are not emotionally suited to becoming embroiled in too many projects at once and should not place the strain of more than one project on your nerves at a time upon yourself. To do so might mean to fail at all of them, whereas to limit yourself means almost certain success.

Because in your own home you not only want but actually need to be "man," it is important that you choose your mate from among those who are willing to lead — at least part of the time. Of course, if a woman, you will have to learn the art of leading while seeming to follow, or you may create more difficulties, than you can handle.

To find what is in store for you tomorrow, select your birth day and read the corresponding paragraph. Let your birthday star be your daily guide.

Friday, July 8.

CANCER (June 22-July 23). — It may not be easy today for you to live up to the expectations of those nearest and dearest. Your family will, however, make every effort to help you.

LEO (July 24-Aug. 23). — The resourceful Leo makes the greatest gains today. Shape circumstances to your liking rather than allowing them to reverse.

VIRGO (Aug. 24-Sept. 23). — A routine day filled with routine chores. Not an unimportant day, but for the future may depend upon how well you perform within the mold.

LIBRA (Sept. 24-Oct. 22). — It is social rather than business connections that can do you the most good today. Be on guard against the results of another's

SCORPIO (Oct. 23-Nov. 22). — Today your physical welfare today. Pay attention to symptoms, no matter how slight, if you would ward off more serious consequences.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 21). — Advance your position along with your friendships today. Take care, however, not to slight the latter in favor of the former.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 20). — A day when trivial details could escape your attention if you're not careful. Pay particular attention to mail.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21-Feb. 19). — Stick to business this morning, but turn your attention to social obligations during the afternoon. A varied day.

PISCES (Feb. 20-Mar. 21). — The situation that makes the day clearly calls for tact and discretion on your part. Don't spoil things by temper.

ARIES (March 22-April 20). — It's up to you today, whether you will gain an enemy or a friend. Remember that a little kindness or unkindness can bring a long way.

Taurus (April 21-May 19). — Taurus will attempt to do too much today. Business matters that can wait until next week should be temporarily shelved. Relax.

GEMINI (May 20-June 18). — Day four for advancing hopes and dreams. You may not accomplish much in a material way at the moment, but you can get plans under way.

VETERANS TO MEET

BUHL—Buhl Thurston Pence Post No. 3094, Veterans of Foreign Wars, will meet at 8:30 p.m. Monday at the Buhl VFW hall. Plans will be made for the joint VFW and Auxiliary annual family picnic July 17 in Eastman Park. All members are urged to attend.

LEGAL ADVERTISEMENTS

BUHL—The building in Gooding County will be torn down within the next year.

With the opening of a new grocery store now in the final stages of completion, George Lenger and his son Frank Lenger will tear down the old building that has been a grocery store for the Bells area for 82 years.

The building was constructed in 1883 when Bells was the western terminal of the railroad. The store was a supply center for mining towns in Nevada and all of Southwestern Idaho.

Freight wagons loaded there for trips to Jarbridge, Nev., and also served as a post office for a few years when Bells was also the last stop of passenger trains to areas in this portion of Idaho.

The original frame building had had additions on both sides, the back and front since it was built. When highway 30 was constructed in 1930 through Bells, it followed main street and was built around the store, which obstructed the direct roadway.

The Lenger family is a three generation grocery store family, having started with George Lenger, father of George Lenger, who ran a grocery store in Gooding for many years. He was also the first school principal in Gooding. Lengers moved to Gooding from Nebraska when the town was still called Topo.

The Lengers bought the store at a sheriff's sale 18 years ago and have been running it since that time, with the family enterprise growing with progress.

The new building has been directly to the west of the old, and the original store, a portion of the old building will be included in the new portion. The new building is 80 by 40 feet, just twice the size of the old store. Plans to open the store are not for July 15, and with the year, the old portion will be torn down.

CORPSMEN CUT

ANAKA, Turkey (AP). — Peace Corps officials say personnel will be reduced by about 10 percent by the end of the year because of a lack of volunteers. It will leave the corps with about 600 personnel in Turkey.
